

A MATTER OF BUSINESS

One thing the public should get clear out of its head, is the impression that any bonus is being asked for the new wire and red mills.

The expense of their location and erection is entirely at the cost of the owner, the Wheeling Steel Corporation.

The Corporation in no wise shares financially in the proposition to erect homes to be occupied solely by its employees. It is concerned therein in only so far as it erected the Wire and Red mills here upon the pledge of the Chamber of Commerce to see to the erection of a given number of dwellings. House building is outside the functions of the Corporation, possibly, outside of its corporate powers.

It realizes, however, the difficulty of maintaining employees without reasonable abiding places for them. Locally, it has had acute personal experience of the incidental losses, caused by lack of housing facilities, annually hundreds, yes, thousands of desirable workmen in its various mills leaving because they can find no decent homes for their families. Because of this experience it was made a condition precedent to the location that the erection of a given number of dwellings be guaranteed.

This guarantee was given and on the faith of it the location was made, became the determining point upon which Portsmouth secured a new industry that will bring to her directly fifteen hundred new workmen, all receiving substantial wages and many big pay. They will prove a most desirable addition to the population and prosperity of the town.

The proposal to provide homes for them is in no sense a charity or a gift. It's a matter of business, purely and simply, an investment not only for the general good, but furnishing a reasonable direct return and a guarantee against loss as secure as can be.

The houses will be owned and looked after by the Housing Corporation, of which every subscriber will be a stock holder to the amount paid by him. They will be rented at a figure adequate to return a just dividend on the investment. Further they will be sold as rapidly as possible to mill employees.

So the proposition is plain enough and there ought to be no misconception regarding it. Neither should there be any division, or opposition over it. As has been said and repeated the same and fortune of Portsmouth are involved in it. Towns, as well as individuals, must keep their word, must invest that they may grow and prosper.

The Wheeling Steel Corporation has done its part, let the community do its part as in honor-bound.

And we say community advice. For this is not an undertaking and a duty of a few, it is the responsibility of all. All will in some manner or other share in the benefits of it. The project of which this is an incident means a bigger Portsmouth, more business and more occupations for those who seek employment.

Armour Now Controls Morris

CHICAGO, March 29.—(By the Associated Press)—Absorption of Morris and Company by Armour and Company today was an accomplished fact, six months of negotiations, the final three weeks of which saw virtually day and night conferences, ending last night when approximately one hundred interested persons signed the documents of transfer and Armour and Company issued a statement, which marked the reduction of the "big five" packers to four.

Officially Morris and Company was purchased by the North American Provision Company, a subsidiary of Armour and Company, of Delaware, a recently formed subsidiary of Armour and Company, of Illinois, for approximately $27,450,000, payments to be made in cash and stock.

Harding Don't Want Tariff Kicked 'Round

BY DAVID LAWRENCE
(Copyright 1933 By The Portsmouth Times)

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla., March 29.—President Harding's order to the tariff commission to ascertain if there is any relationship between the high prices of sugar and the operation of the Fordney-McCumber tariff, is not expected to result in any reduction of the duty on sugar. The president himself is of the opinion that outside influences sent the price of sugar upward and his instruction to the tariff commission is intended to answer the critics who have been arguing that the tariff was responsible.

Politically it is very important to disassociate the idea of an increased cost of living, from the duties of the recent tariff law enacted by the Republicans, and Mr. Harding is not willing to permit the impression of a connection between the two to go unchallenged.

President Not Prejudging Case
Mr. Harding is not prejudging the case and will revise his opinions and proclaim a reduction in duty if by chance the tariff commission does discover that the increased duty led to the high price of sugar. The Republican national committee's contention in its recent statement that if sugar advanced a few cents a pound after the tariff law was passed, the tariff could not be held responsible for succeeding advances, is looked upon here naturally as sound reasoning. There is another way, however, by which a rule in the tariff might operate to advance prices. The duty increase might in itself be slight, but if it is sufficient to discourage outside production for

Spring, Did You Say? Read This! Below Zero Weather Hits Country

DETROIT, MICH., March 29.—(By the Associated Press)—The ninth day of spring found the upper half of lower Michigan and the entire northern part of the state in the grip of weather more severe than any experienced during the winter. A blizzard that brought with it sub-zero temperature, broke Tuesday as far south as Traverse City in the west and Bay City in the east and on to the northward and still was raging this morning, according to reports reaching here.

Railroad traffic was at a standstill throughout most of the affected region, street car traffic was demoralized, and highway travel was almost impossible.

The temperature at Bar City last night was reported unofficially at zero. Railroad crews reaching that point from the north said they had experienced temperatures as low as 25 below zero.

Reports from the country surrounding the Soo told of farm houses being snowed under up to the second stories, their occupants being forced to tunnel a way to barns to care for livestock.

Anxiety had been expressed over the fate of residents of Sutton's Bay, a resort village in the Grand Traverse region, that had been without railroad service for eighteen days because of storms. Reassuring word was received yesterday, however, from L. R. Sogge, village president, who sent an open letter to Traverse city by a stage driver, declaring that "instead of eating dog" the villagers were sending food and fuel to persons in need on nearby farms.

"We hope the rest of the world is as fortunate as we are," the letter from the storm-bound village concluded.

30 Below at Saranac Lake
NEW YORK, March 29.—(By the Associated Press)—At Saranac Lake the mercury dropped during the night to 30 degrees below zero, and temperatures of 10 below were reported from several other upstate points.

Regular Winter in New England
BOSTON, March 29.—(By the Associated Press)—The temperature in New England today made new low records for the season. In Boston early today it was four above, making it one of the coldest mornings of the year. The lowest official temperature in New England was 18 below at Greenville, Maine.

NEW YORK, March 29.—(By the Associated Press)—New Yorkers went to work today shivering in the coldest March weather on record here. The temperature early in the day was twelve degrees. Warmer weather was promised for the afternoon.

The coldest March weather previously recorded was in 1873, when it was 19.

HARLAN, KY., March 29.—(By the Associated Press)—County officers and possesmen had returned today from the mouth of Beech Creek, in the hills of Leslie county with an account of the desperate last stand of "The Strongs," a battle in which three men and a woman were killed Wednesday.

Kelly Walker, Deputy Sheriff of Tejay, Ky., Isaac and George Strong and Mrs. Isaac Strong were killed.

Carrying a warrant for the arrest of Isaac, on charges of liquor law violations 22 possesmen arrived at the Strong home and surrounded that house. Deputy Walker advanced toward the house.

Hidden marksmen fired and Walker staggered with a wound in the breast. As he ran for cover, a second bullet pierced his head.

Companions of the slain officer concentrated a withering fire on the house and soon the fire of the defenders became desultory and finally ceased.

When the officers entered the house the two men and Mrs. Strong were dead.

From their hiding place under a bed, the five children of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Strong, crawled out, unharmed.

The log cabin home of Strong's had more than 75 bullet holes in it today as evidence of the fierceness of the gun battle.

Walker, a deputy United States prohibition agent, Isaac Strong, alleged moonshiner, Mrs. Strong, his wife, and George Strong, a brother, were all killed during the battle.

NEW YORK, March 29.—(By the Associated Press)—United in their search for the murderer of Dorothy Keenan, for the first time since the woman's body was found two weeks ago, the police and the district attorney's office started today on a joint expedition, retracing the step each has taken in separate investigations.

Every person already examined, was under recall to undergo re-questioning by the combined forces.

The investigation will begin at the bottom, the officials indicating that all the individual stories must be retold under thorough re-checking.

While Assistant District Attorney Pecora was informed by Major Draper M. Daugherty, son of the attorney general, of the name of the man he asserts attempted to blackmail him by exposing what the major says was a "casual and social" acquaintance with Miss Keenan, Mr. Pecora indicated he has not sufficient evidence for an arrest.

Promise Bright Easter

WASHINGTON, March 29.—(By the United Press)—March will bow its hoary head Saturday and go out like a lamb. The national weather man here predicted that the zero wind will blow itself out in the Atlantic ocean tonight, turn loose again Friday and Saturday, and then disappear and permit a bright and sunny Easter. Rain and snow will be sandwiched in across the northern section Friday or Saturday.

Lion And Lamb Play Hide And Seek; Reverse Dope

WASHINGTON, March 29.—(By the Associated Press)—The March lion and the March lamb who have been playing hide and seek during the month, today seemed to have completely reversed the traditional order of things and in some sections at least the month gave every indication of going out with a wintry roar.

Weather bureau officials in making public record, breaking temperatures in the east and mid-west for so late in the season also announced that this March had taken the palm from all others, notwithstanding the fact the month is noted for its fickle temper.

Some of the thermometer readings telegraphed in today, all of them marking new low points, were Washington, 18; Harrisburg, Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, 13; Erie, Albany, zero. Buffalo, 6; Ft. Wayne, Ind., 14; Greenville, Maine, 18 below, and White River, Ont., 30 below.

Weather bureau officials said the shifts had been so rapid this month that they had been kept on their "toes." In many instances it had been necessary to predict cold and warm weather for the same 24 hours, due to lightning like shifts. This was illustrated in a report of conditions now existing in the atmosphere.

Evidence Against Other Persons Recommended To Grand Jury

COLUMBUS, O., March 29.—(By the Associated Press)—By a unanimous vote the state senate this afternoon accepted the investigating committee's report on the Marshall hotel bill. Upon motion of Senator Marshall, the bill was taken from the hands of the judiciary committee and placed on the senate calendar for passage. It had been referred to the judiciary committee pending the investigation.

COLUMBUS, O., March 29.—(By the Associated Press)—Senators J. J. Rowe and L. L. Marshall, of Cleveland, and the Ohio Hotel Association today were officially absolved from any connection with rumors of corrupt practices in connection with the hotel liability bill of Senator Marshall.

The committee in its report made to the senate today said there had been no testimony to "reflect in the slightest degree" on either of the two senators or the hotel association, but recommended that a transcript of evidence taken be turned over to Prosecutor John R. King, of Franklin county "for such action as he may deem advisable" in connection with other persons brought into the case.

The basis of the rumors which surrounded the bill, the report declared was an attempt by William W. Ryers, Cleveland hotel man, and member of the hotel association's legislative committee to secure the "right to lobby" for the bill after listening to statements from Ben W. Sawyer, Cleveland attorney, that the legislature was opposed to all legislation favorable to hotels, "all of which information and representations were given and made by the witness, Sawyer, in the hope of obtaining personal reward for his services."

Both Ryers and Sawyer were witnesses during the committee hearing and made conflicting statements regarding an alleged attempt to have the hotel expenses of Senator Rowe paid. Ryers on the stand and in a letter to President Nichols of the Ohio Hotel Association, has said that he had sought to have the hotel association pay attorney's fees to Sawyer which were intended to be used in paying Senator Rowe's hotel expenses. He said Sawyer had proposed that such methods be used. Sawyer denied any connection with such an arrangement when he was placed on the stand and in an "amended statement" submitted by Ryers, he denied the truth of the statement in his previous communication regarding the proposal to pay the senator's hotel bills. In its recommendation that testimony be turned over to the prosecutor, the committee which was composed of Senators F. B. Burch, of Akron, and Joseph R. Gardner, of Cincinnati, Republicans, and W. F. Garver, of Millersburg, Democrat, said that they were "of the opinion that the first letter dated March 15, 1933, from Ryers to Nichols was a correct statement of the facts rather than the amended statement which Ryers later made."

Besides clearing the hotel association as an organization, the committee said that the bill, which would have limited the liability of hotels for guests' property, "had an entirely worthy and proper object in view."

Condemned Priests Get Stay Of Execution

MOSCOW, March 29.—(By the Associated Press)—The Revolutionary tribunal at Kamenetz-Podolsk in the Volynia district has sentenced to death a group of 34 persons, chiefly tradesmen, and members of the intelligentsia, convicted of assisting the anti-bolshevik commander, Petlura, by armed attacks on the red forces.

MOSCOW, March 29.—(By the Associated Press)—The appeal for clemency of the Catholic prelates and priests sentenced last Monday, will be considered at the first meeting of the central executive committee to be held either tomorrow or next Friday, the government's amnesty department announced today. While the temporary stay of sentence for the condemned men is applicable, they will remain in prison.

Vatican Eagerly Awaits News
ROME, March 29.—(By the Associated Press)—Vatican circles were eagerly awaiting word from Moscow today in the hope that the soviet government, having granted a stay of execution to the cases of Archbishop Zepiak and the other convicted prelates, would take cognizance of the request of the pope that they be liberated.

Church officials recalled that the Moscow government's assurances before the trial that no capital sentences would be carried out had been renewed since its conclusion, and word that the executions had at least been delayed, served to relieve their fears somewhat.

Telegrams received here from Warsaw indicate that the Polish people are incensed over the conviction of the prelates.

U. S. Sends Protests
WASHINGTON, March 29.—(By the Associated Press)—Representations of "earnest hope" that Archbishop Zepiak and Monsignor Dulchavitch of the Roman Catholic Church, may be spared from the death sentence passed upon them in Moscow, have been made by the state department to the soviet government through the American ambassador at Berlin.

Official announcement that the American government had taken this step to "give expression to the humanitarian interest of the American people" in the fate of the two ecclesiastics, was made last night by the department. The sentences had been termed by the department of justice earlier as constituting an outrage against humanity which could not fail to create the deepest feeling of resentment and horror in the United States.

Foster To Know Fate Next Week

ST. JOSEPH, MICH., March 29.—(By the Associated Press)—William Z. Foster, of Chicago, the first of 32 alleged communists arrested as a result of a raid on the communist party convention in the dunes near here last August to face trial on charges of violating the law against criminal syndicalism will not know his fate before next week.

Attorneys for both the state and defense were agreed today that there was no hope of completing the trial now in its third week before adjournment Friday night.

Charles E. Ruthenberg, first defense witness, who faced his fifth day on the stand today would be through today, according to indications, but who would follow him had not been announced. Frank P. Walsh, counsel for Foster, refused to discuss his plans.

It was regarded as probable that Ruthenberg and possibly Foster, if he should decide to take the stand in his own defense, would be the only witnesses from among those who attended the convention.

Discusses Medical Supervision In Schools

Editor Times—Will you please publish the following, since so much space was given to Dr. Peter's side of medical inspection of school children?

Mr. School Board, members and parents of Portsmouth children did you know that more than 30 per cent of the people do not believe in the drug system? And thousands are leaving it annually is why the Political Doctors are trying to save themselves by forcing their system on the poor helpless school children.

Mr. School Board member, do you know it is "power" that is causing compulsory medicine and not the merits of Allopathic Medicine? Do you know they haven't a single specific cure for a single specific disease? In five thousand years of experimenting, shouldn't science that wants to crowd out every other Science, at least be required to show one specific cure for one specific disease.

Mr. School Board member and parents don't you know in most every case when children take sick in school, the teacher calls the school nurse? Couldn't they just as well call the parents and let them call their family Doctor, whom they want?

I say this without fear of contradiction: "There is not a Medical Doctor or Nurse in the City that will detect the sick child in a school room as quickly as the average teacher, and the parents will notice it even quicker than any of the three mentioned."

Do you know that the doctors have the statistics picked out to suit these occasions? (Read Dr. Baldwin's Presidential Address of the Ohio State Medical Association).

Smallpox: Mr. School Board and parents, do you know some of the best authorities in the country say, that smallpox would have passed out of existence like cholera, black plague, and yellow fever had it not been for vaccination? Do you know that vaccination raised the death rate from 10 per cent to 65 per cent in the Philippine Islands? Read a copy of the report taken from the U. S. Philippine Health Service report by the Masonic Observer. I have several copies, a stamped envelope and address will get one.

Heart trouble, Tuberculosis and Cancer have increased from 200 per cent to 300 per cent. Do you know of any better system of poisoning the blood which is the base of these diseases, than Pus-Punching and Serum Squirting?

A large proportion of the ex-soldiers in the Hospitals have Tuberculosis.

Is it any wonder the children are under-nourished when such practices are made compulsory.

A Science that cannot stand on its merits and stand competition should not be enforced on the unwilling and resisting public.

There are people who believe in Allopathic Medicine; people who believe in Eclectic Medicine; people who believe in Homeopathy; people who believe in Osteopathy, and people who believe in Chiropractic. Are you going to say to those people that do not believe in Allopathic Medicine, go away with your belief, we are going to give you Allopathic Medicine whether you like it or not and the first year we will tax you $17,000.00 to start and after that will tax you from $50,000 to $100,000 whatever the trust asks for?

Do you know that in Kansas City, Missouri, medical inspection is pronounced a failure and statistics from several large cities which have had medical inspection for the school children show an increase in the number of contagious diseases since the adoption of medical examinations of school children?

In Illinois, Hon. F. G. Blair, Supt. of Public Instruction for Illinois, has advised that there be no law requiring the medical inspection of school children in Illinois. He says, "Pupils CANNOT be required to submit to a medical inspection as a prerequisite to their attending school." Mr. Blair is the highest legal advisor on school matters in the state of Illinois.

I am in favor of Dental Inspection of school children, but only by consent of the parents.

President Intends To Go Through With Program
Mr. Harding, however, most certainly intends to go through with the program announced in his telegram to Chairman Martin of the tariff commission. If he finds that a reduction of duty is likely to bring about a more satisfactory market for the consumer, he will not hesitate to use the flexible provisions of the tariff law which permits him to revise a duty downward by fifty per cent. Sugar is something which touches every household and Mr. Harding will not if he can help it give the Democrats ammunition whereby they can lay other economic bills of the next year and a half to the Fordney-McCumber tariff law. The president has indicated already that he thinks some of the provisions of the Fordney law were unnecessarily high but he has promised to use the powers of the tariff commission.

Boy So Badly Burned He Dies; Heroic Mother Is Also Burned

Burns suffered by Richard Bressler, six year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Bressler of 1015 Washington street, about five o'clock last night when a fire broke out in an open gas stove, caused death about two o'clock this morning at Mercy hospital. About two-thirds of the child's body was badly burned and death was expected by physicians who administered hypodermics. The mother remained with child until the end came. She was burned about the arms and hands when she wrapped a comfort around the little body, to smother the flames in the clothes.

Mrs. Bressler was in the sitting room of the home with Richard when he left her to go into the next room to play with his younger brothers. He had been away from his mother but a few seconds when she heard his screams and the cries of the smaller children. She rushed into the adjoining room and found the child a flaming torch, his light gleaming dress burning quickly. He was only a few feet from an open gas stove when the mother reached his side, and wrapped a comfort she had grabbed about his body.
The cries of the children and the screams of Mrs. Bressler brought John and Edward Bennett who live upstairs to the assistance of Mrs. Bressler. Mrs. Bressler's clothing had caught fire and they smothered the fire by wrapping an overcoat about her.

The husband and father who works at the Irving Drew shoe plant arrived about this time and was summoned by Dr. O. R. Mickelthwait who took the child in his automobile to Mercy hospital.
At the hospital it was found that the burns were severe on the arms, legs, back and stomach. The child's face and hair were also touched by the flames that shot over his head. Attending physicians stated that no hopes were held for when more than two thirds of the body is burned the kidneys are usually affected by the poison taken into the system because the pores of the burned portion of the skin cannot function properly.

The child had lost the power of speech as the result of an illness of typhoid fever two years ago. He also had been afflicted with a spastic leg as the result of the malady.
Mr. and Mrs. Bressler have lived in Portsmouth for many years. Mr. Bressler being a native of this place. There are four other children in the family. They are: Pauline, aged 11; Donald 4; George 3; and James 2.

Federal Government Expected To Take Hand In The Pike County Election Case

Ohio House Votes To Seat Wynn And Requests Clean Up Of Election Irregularities

CINCINNATI, O., March 29.—That the federal government is expected to take action in the Pike county election case last November as a result of the report in the house last night in the contest by Harry L. Foster, Republican for the seat of Robert S. Wynn, Democrat, was intimated today.

According to a story published in a local newspaper the matter has been presented to U. S. District Attorney Thomas H. Morrow with the request for a federal investigation and prosecution in the event the investigation develops evidence sufficient to warrant.

Captain Morrow would not deny or affirm that he has any knowledge of it. John F. Eckhart, agent in charge of the Cincinnati Bureau of Investigation, department of justice, also declined to admit or deny that agents of his department have been in Pike county making investigations.

COLUMBUS, O., Mar. 29.—(By the A. P.)—The Ohio House of Representatives late yesterday voted to seat Robert S. Wynn, Democrat of Pike county, as member of the lower branch of the Assembly and requested both a federal and state grand jury investigation of political conditions in Pike county. The action was taken in adopting the unanimous report of the special committee which investigated conditions obtaining at the last November election in Pike county.

In recommending that a transcript of the evidence taken in the investigation be turned over to the Ohio Attorney General, add the United District Attorney with request that either of them impound a special grand jury to investigate election frauds in Pike county with a view to inducing and prosecuting the persons responsible for the political shame and debauchery of the election of that county. The committee declared that it felt that "crookedness" exists to some extent in both of the old political parties, Republican as well as Democratic.

Urges Change In Law
The committee also recommended that the absent voters law under which most of the frauds were committed, be either amended or better yet that it be repealed. "As the present law now stands," the report said, "it affords a sure method of buying a vote and of knowing that you are receiving exactly what you paid for." Numerous witnesses testified to receiving money for voting, the amounts ranging from $2 to $20.

Report Is Cheered
When the clerk had completed reading the committee report both the majority and the minority sides of the House cheered and the House accepted the report by an unanimous vote.

Recommending the seating of Representative Wynn, the report stated that members of the committee "are not convinced that Mr. Wynn, the contestant herein, was guilty of the corrupt practices with which he has been charged, or that he had personal knowledge of the corrupt methods used in the conduct of the entire campaign in Pike county."

Report Exonerates Wynn
In a general review of the case, the report stated that while there was some testimony in the record tending to show that Mr. Wynn, had engaged in the purchase of votes, the committee was inclined to discredit the stories of those witnesses "because of the apparent unreliability and lack of credibility on the part of those witnesses." One of those witnesses, the report asserts, admitted that "he neglected and refused to turn over to his wife her share of the bribe money."

Foster Is Implicated
The report also asserted that there was some testimony tending to implicate Harry L. Foster, Republican contestant for Mr. Wynn's seat, "as a purchaser of votes," but that the committee had voted also to disregard this testimony because of the "unreliability" of the witnesses.

"We therefore, respectfully recommend that the charges filed against Robert S. Wynn be dismissed, and that he be permitted to retain his seat in the House of Representatives as a duly elected and qualified member thereof."

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON SESSION

At the afternoon session of Mayor's Court R. H. Dewitt, detective alleged to be employed by the Democrats, took the stand. After being sworn, his testimony was as follows, the questions being asked by the prosecutor:

Q. Your name is R. H. Dewitt?

A. Yes.

Q. You were employed during election contest in Pike County?

A. Yes.

Q. You secured a number of affidavits against Republicans, did you not?

A. Yes.

Q. These affidavits contained good evidence, did they not?

A. Yes.

Q. Is Judge A. Z. Blair paying you money now, and if so, for what purpose?

A. To obtain affidavits that I got previously and have them photographed, paying me $7.50 per day. I was to be remunerated handsomely later.

Q. Who was he to get the money from?

A. From his clients.

Q. Did Fisher make any statement to you about getting money for testimony?

A. Yes.

Q. Did he say he got $30 from the Sargent-at-Arms and $100 from another man he did not know?

A. Yes.

Q. Who did you get money from? (Referring to the $7.50.)

A. From Judge Blair. He would have me think that he is getting money from the Republican Committee in Pike County.

Q. You want to see Judge Blair to get what information you could and to see what kind of a man he was, did you not?

A. Yes.

Q. Blair made the statement direct to you about the affidavits?

A. Yes.

Q. Did he tell you what to do?

A. Yes. Didn't care how I got them, just so I got them. I asked him how I was to get pictures taken. He said to get a little machine of your own. I said I would have to take them to Cincinnati and get them photographed. This conversation took place yesterday in Judge Blair's office.

Q. Did Fisher hear conversation?

A. Yes. He heard it the first day. He wasn't with me yesterday.

Q. How many drinks did Fisher have?

A. He had about 20 drinks. I think. Bought it from a bootlegger in Portsmouth.

Q. Did he drink whisky from his own bottle?

A. Yes. I didn't give it to him.

Judge Blair is out of the city, being in the South on a business trip. He is expected back to-day or tomorrow.

When arraigned Fisher entered a plea of not guilty to the charges Mayor Smith set his trial for 1:30 Thursday afternoon. However, Fisher was asked a number of questions by Prosecuting Attorney George D. Nye dealing with his activities in Pike County, his connection with Judge A. Z. Blair, of the Republican Investigating Committee, and concerning his testimony before the House investigating committee at Columbus. Without being sworn Fisher related how he first met Judge Blair and explained how he took Dewitt to Portsmouth last Monday to meet Judge Blair in his office. He told of the conversation between Dewitt and Blair and charged the latter with saying that he would like to get photographs of the 120 affidavits which Dr. Nye had in his safe at Waverly. He denied that Blair had hired himself and Dewitt at $7.50 per day to get these photographs. The check for $15, which Blair had given them, was for expenses, Fisher said. For testimony before the Legislative Committee he said he received $30 from the Sargent-at-Arms. He denied having received $100 more for his testimony. When asked by the prosecutor if he did not tell Dewitt that he got $100 for his testimony, he replied that he was joking. Wednesday noon court adjourned. The prisoner seemed weak and generally unstrung. He told the court he was sick and that he had only taken two drinks before leaving Portsmouth.

BEGIN HERE TODAY

Vendetta begins between MICHAEL SAYERS, noted criminal, and
SIR NORMAN GREYES, once of Scotland Yard, when Sayers' beautiful housemaid,
JANET, saves him from Sir Norman by shooting dead an officer sent to arrest him. Janet becomes Sayers' wife and accomplice. She receives a legacy of two hundred and fifty pounds and takes passage to Marseilles. On the boat Janet meets a confederate of Michael's named Louise Martin. Louise takes Janet to Sayers' hiding place in Marseilles, where Janet is unjustly accused of treachery. Greys, traveling closely on the trail of Michael, discovers Sayers has eluded his pursuers by disguising a confederate as himself and leaving him at the residence.

NOW GO ON WITH STORY

Sir Norman Talks
He shook his head.
"They were left by a former tenant," he replied. "I know nothing of their use."

I turned into the garage and wheeled out one of the rubber tires which were ranged against the wall. "If you have no other car," I asked him, "how is it that all the tires in your garage are like this one—two sizes larger than those on the car you were driving?"

He hesitated and turned his head. He knew then that it was the end. The housemaid was returning with a fat little man who wore no coat and no vest.

"This man keeps the café at the corner," the former announced. "He knows his neighbor Guy well."

"Is this Monsieur Guy?" Demayel asked.

The limousine was more than euphoric; he was vehement.

"Upon my soul, no," he declared. "Monsieur Guy I know well. This gentleman is a stranger."

Demayel turned to the pseudo Monsieur Guy.

"Well?"

The man shrugged his shoulders. "I have done what I was paid for," he said solemnly.

WE dined that night, Birmingham and I, in a remote corner of a great bustling restaurant. Demayel had himself telephoned and ordered the table. The latter had promised to join us for coffee, but, before we reached that stage of our repast, we were surprised to see him coming hastily toward us, followed by a tall man of military bearing.

"Messieurs," he said as he sat for a moment at our table, "a grave thing has happened. The young man who has acted as my secretary for five years has absconded. It is he, without a doubt, who warned the man whom you call Michael. Worse than that, his report to me that the Carlyn would not reach dock until tonight was a lie. She arrived this morning and landed her passengers this afternoon."

"I half rose to my feet, but Demayel waved me back.

"Listen," he continued. "This much we know at present: The Englishwoman went first to the Hotel Splendide. At six o'clock this evening she was called for by the other woman, and they drove off alone. They were shadowed, fortunately, by Louis, the American detective, who followed Louise Martin over, and who reports that his life was attempted last night. This woman, Martin, it seems, has an evil reputation. She has been in prison twice in her younger days in Paris, and she was tried for murder seven years ago. Louis reports that there is ill blood between the two women. He is convinced that the Englishwoman, Janet Soale, as she called herself on the steamer, has been decoyed into some place to meet Michael."

"How far did he follow them?" I asked.

"Where is he now?"

"He followed them into the worst quarter of Marseilles," Demayel replied, "but as soon as he discovered their destination, he had the good sense to return for aid. They are in the one quarter of the city which I have not yet succeeded in clearing. But tonight the attempt shall be made."

Let us start!" I exclaimed eagerly.

We moved toward the door.

"I deeply regret," Demayel an-

No remedy can cure all ailments of the human body. An immense number of people suffer from various ailments when their real trouble is lack of iron in the blood. It is the iron in your blood that enables you to get the nourishment out of your food. Without iron your food merely passes through you without doing you any good. You don't get the strength out of it. There is one universal known tonic that has helped thousands because it contains iron like the iron in fresh vegetables, and like the iron in your blood.

NUXATED IRON
is an eminent physician's best blood prescription, standardized. It is recommended for all anemic and run-down conditions. It has helped thousands of others. It should help you. Ask for it at any drug store.

demanded, "that this is an adventure on which I cannot accompany you. I am to show myself in the Quartier. I should not only endanger your lives, but I should of an absolute certainty forfeit my own. Monsieur Santel here," he added, turning to his companion, "will take command of the expedition. Louis is in one of the cars outside. A sufficient force of gendarmes have already penetrated secretly into the Quartier. It remains only for me to wish you good fortune."

In the car which we found waiting for us, we passed from the broad thoroughfares of the city to a region of increasing squalor and ugliness.

We descended some small stone steps, passed along a narrow passage, and entered a café, the most dilapidated and filthy I have ever been in. A repulsive woman lolled across the counter and looked at us.

WE passed behind that counter, through a door, into a noisome house wrapped in utter darkness. Four other men seemed to have crept up to us like shadows, and we all had electric torches. At a certain point in the descent of some stone steps, we paused. Three of the men felt about for some time. Then an unsuspected door slowly swung open, a door which seemed to lead into a chasm, black and impenetrable. The man who had slipped past Santel and become our guide stretched up his hand and pulled down a long, thin ladder. One by one we descended into what seemed to be a great cellar. At the farther end was a kink of light from the room beyond, and a sound which for the moment made a madman of me—the sound of a woman crying. I stumbled across the uneven floor, but Santel caught hold of my arm.

"Be careful," he muttered. "If our man is there and sees you, he will shoot. Let the others surround him. We have a plan."

I scarcely heard him, but I held my breath and kept silence while some one attempted to find means of ingress. Then suddenly, I heard Michael's voice. Cold and measured as ever, it seemed to me, though he must have known that he was in desperate straits.

"For the last time, Janet, the truth," he said. "What has become of the money which was handed over to you—the price of the jewels? And why have you followed me to Marseilles?"

"No one has given me any money," she replied. "I have earned my own living since we parted."

"Liar," Louise exclaimed. "Tell us why you came to Marseilles, and why Birmingham, the English detective, has followed. Tell us who called your new lover, Norman Greys, from Monte Carlo?"

"How far did he follow them?" I asked.

"Where is he now?"

"He followed them into the worst quarter of Marseilles," Demayel replied, "but as soon as he discovered their destination, he had the good sense to return for aid. They are in the one quarter of the city which I have not yet succeeded in clearing. But tonight the attempt shall be made."

Let us start!" I exclaimed eagerly.

We moved toward the door.

"I deeply regret," Demayel andemanded, "that this is an adventure on which I cannot accompany you. I am to show myself in the Quartier. I should not only endanger your lives, but I should of an absolute certainty forfeit my own. Monsieur Santel here," he added, turning to his companion, "will take command of the expedition. Louis is in one of the cars outside. A sufficient force of gendarmes have already penetrated secretly into the Quartier. It remains only for me to wish you good fortune."

In the car which we found waiting for us, we passed from the broad thoroughfares of the city to a region of increasing squalor and ugliness.

We descended some small stone steps, passed along a narrow passage, and entered a café, the most dilapidated and filthy I have ever been in. A repulsive woman lolled across the counter and looked at us.

WE passed behind that counter, through a door, into a noisome house wrapped in utter darkness. Four other men seemed to have crept up to us like shadows, and we all had electric torches. At a certain point in the descent of some stone steps, we paused. Three of the men felt about for some time. Then an unsuspected door slowly swung open, a door which seemed to lead into a chasm, black and impenetrable. The man who had slipped past Santel and become our guide stretched up his hand and pulled down a long, thin ladder. One by one we descended into what seemed to be a great cellar. At the farther end was a kink of light from the room beyond, and a sound which for the moment made a madman of me—the sound of a woman crying. I stumbled across the uneven floor, but Santel caught hold of my arm.

"Be careful," he muttered. "If our man is there and sees you, he will shoot. Let the others surround him. We have a plan."

mad. I was cutting the cords which bound Janet's hands and feet, talking to her foolishly, trying to keep back the faintness which threatened me. Then the mist came, and the room rocked.

MY first visitor in the hospital, six weeks later, was Monsieur Demayel.

"That man's escape, Sir Norman," he confessed, "was a most deplorable incident."

"How did he get away?" I inquired.

"He descended through the trapdoor from the room in which you found him," Monsieur Demayel explained. "By means of a rope ladder, to a narrow inlet of the harbor, which at full tide is directly underneath. He secured the trapdoor behind him by means of a bolt, got into a petrol launch and apparently made his way across the bay. The launch was discovered next day upon the beach, and there is a theory that he was washed overboard by a heavy sea."

"Louisa Martin?" I asked.

"Safe for seven years," was the grim reply.

"And—the Englishwoman?"

Monsieur Demayel glanced suspiciously at the flowers by my bedside.

"She remained in Marseilles for some time. I do not know her present whereabouts."

As soon as my visitor had gone, I sent for the nurse.

"From whom did these flowers come?" I inquired.

"Until you were out of danger," she told me, "a very beautiful English lady called every day. A week ago she returned to England, but she left with the Sister an order on a florist for roses every day for a fortnight."

"She left no note or message?"

"Nothing."

"When can I leave for England?"

"In a fortnight, if you behave," she answered. "Perhaps never, if you work yourself into a fever."

"Nurse," I asked, "have you ever been in love?"

"It is not a fit patient from a patient to his nurse," she replied, with a pleasant little gleam in her eyes.

"I need sympathy," I explained. "but if you will not talk to me, I shall go to sleep."

"The more you sleep," she declared, "the sooner you will be able to go to England."

"Michael's Wedding Gift," ninth story of this remarkable series, will begin in our next issue.

You will be amazed to see how the use of "Bull" Durham will out down the cost of your smoking.

How is it possible to give you quality at the low cost of 10 cents for 50 cigarettes?

Here's one reason: The government tax alone on 50 machine-made cigarettes is 15 cents—5 CENTS MORE THAN THE COST OF 50 "BULL" DURHAM CIGARETTES TO YOU!

The average smoker saves $1 to $1.50 a week by "rolling his own" from "Bull"—or from $52 to $78 a year. This makes quite a Christmas fund—or pays for a fine trip.

HOUSING GOAL IN SIGHT

Portsmouth is awake at last! The industrial housing proposition is not going to fail. This much was assured by the encouraging report made by the solicitation committee at the E.M.s' club, Thursday noon. While the goal is in sight there is still a tremendous amount of work to be done by the few workers who have been plugging away for the past month.

There are still a large number of prospects who have not yet subscribed, although this amount has been decreased considerably within the past few days. Persons desiring to help this worthy community project are asked to call the Chamber of Commerce.

The names of all those who have taken stock in the housing company will be published in The Times next Sunday. All those subscribing before that time will be included in the list. Subscriptions will be taken at the Chamber of Commerce or at The Times office until 9 o'clock Saturday evening. Three voluntary subscriptions were received at the Chamber of Commerce offices Thursday. They were from women.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—(By the Associated Press)—While the tariff commission was preparing for a broadened inquiry to determine in accordance with President Harding's instructions, whether present import duties were "even partially responsible" for high sugar prices, Cordell Hull, chairman of the Democratic national committee said in a published statement today that it had become the duty of the commission to report "immediately" to the president that it "was partially responsible."

Convention Hall in that city has been loaned for the purpose of giving the Rainbow Chorus 500 strong a chance to put this beautiful Easter program over the wires. Considerable local interest is attached to the concert since Mrs. D. C. Boyd, wife of Rev. Boyd, former pastor of the First Presbyterian church is the accompanist for the program, while Rev. Those attending are advised to be in their seats early, by 7:30 o'clock at the latest.

A delicious two course luncheon was served by Mrs. Saxby, assisted by Mrs. Paul Stockham. The next meeting will be in three weeks, with Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Fleming, when Mrs. M. M. Chilton will be the assistant hostess.

Klan Beaten In Louisiana

NEW ORLEANS, LA., March 29.—(By the Associated Press)—Virtually complete unofficial returns today from the twelve parishes comprising the fifth supreme court district where a primary was held Tuesday to fill a vacancy on the supreme court bench, indicated supporters of the Ku Klux Klan had been defeated in their first political campaign waged in Louisiana.

Newspaper compilations with only a few precincts missing out of the district's total of 273, gave Judge H. F. Brunot, of Baton Rouge, anti-klan candidate, a majority of 575 votes over his two opponents, Judges Columbus Reid and Robert S. Ellis, of Amite, who were supported by the Klan. The vote was Brunot, 9,378; Reid, 4,526; Ellis, 4,277.

The Reid-Ellis forces declined to concede victory for the anti-klan candidate and predicted that he would be defeated if the official count made a second primary necessary. Judge Brunot during the campaign declared that the Klan was the issue in the supreme race and would be the issue in the state campaign which is to open within the next few months.

Home-made Remedy Stops Coughs Quickly

The best cough medicine you ever used. A family supply easily and quickly made. Saves about 50¢.

You might be surprised to know that the best thing you can use for a severe cough, is a remedy which is easily prepared at home in just a few moments. It's cheap, but for prompt results it beats anything else you ever tried. Usually stops the ordinary cough or chest cold in 24 hours. Tastes pleasant, too—children like it—and it is pure and good.

Pour 2½ ounces of Pinex in a pint bottle; then fill it up with plain granulated sugar syrup. Or use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup, if desired. Thus you make a full pint—a family supply—but costing no more than a small bottle of ready-made cough syrup.

And as a cough medicine, there is really nothing better to be had at any price. It goes right to the spot and gives quick, lasting relief. It promptly breaks the inflamed membranes that line the throat and air passages, stops the annoying throat tickle, loosens the phlegm, and soon your cough stops entirely. Splendid for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway pine extract, famous for healing the membranes. To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Don't Forget Baby

You wouldn't feel right to dress up and parade on Easter and perhaps take the baby out, if it be a nice sunny day in its old winter togs. And this leads us to suggest that New Coats and Capes, New Dresses, as well as new Hatties and Novelties for the little ruler of the household are here in our Infants' Department in great number.

The Old Water-Power Mill

In one of our old school readers was a poem, the main thought of which was: "The Mill Will Never, Never Grind With The Water That Has Passed."

We used to read that with just a touch of sadness, but these old mills are out of date now and the lesson has lost its terrors. It was no doubt true concerning an old slow grist-mill along the bank of some lazy, winding, rural stream but that doctrine certainly does not apply to a modern up-to-the-minute department store like Anderson's. It is past performances that keep "our mill" running faster and faster and to a continually increasing capacity each succeeding year. Service, honesty, hospitality and the offering of complete stocks at reasonable prices are to this store what water was to the old mill, and it is just these qualities, already presented and bestowed that make this the popular store that it is and we know that every Favor, Help or Service rendered by us does come back to give added power to this institution.

There is just one best in every line and in the domain of underwear that best is Munsing. A fellow's underwear troubles are settled for lifetime when he once wears Munsing.

Right now when it is time to change from heavy to the medium weight for Spring would be a good time to try Munsing.

Easter Week In Local Churches

At First Christian
Before the largest crowd of the week, which is an indisputable indication of the meetings are growing in interest, Rev. Gerald Culberson delivered a strong sermon at the First Christian Church Wednesday evening, using the life of Elijah, the perfect prophet of Old Testament history, as a basis for his conclusions.

BAD BREATH
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work. People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects. All the benefits of many, sickening, gripping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without any of the bad after effects. Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath. Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. See and hear—Advertisement.

Healing Cream Stops Catarrh

Clogged Air Passages—Open At Once—Nose and Throat Clear
If your nostrils are clogged and your head stuffed because of catarrh or a cold, get Ely's Cream Balm at any drug store. Apply a little of this pure, antiseptic, germ destroying cream into your nostrils and let it penetrate through every air passage of your head and membrane. Instant relief.

How good it feels. Your head is clear. Your nostrils are open. You breathe freely. No more hawking or sniffling. Head colds and catarrh yield like magic. Don't stay stuffed up choked up and miserable. Relief is sure.—Advertisement.

HOT TEA BREAKS A COLD—TRY THIS

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of this Hamburg tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teaspoonful at any time. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores, relieves congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking a cold at once. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore harmless.—Advertisement

The singing was led by David Hughes, of Cincinnati, with Mrs. Hughes and Miss Marjorie Gerlach at the piano. Chorister Hughes asked all who possessed the red song books to bring them on Thursday evening, when some of the favorite songs of the Dr. George Wood Anderson crusade would be sung. Meetings start at 7:35, and there is not a dull moment during the hourlong services. Come and worship with the good people of Third and Gay streets.

At First Presbyterian
"The Question That Went Around The Table" will be the subject of Rev. William H. Gleiser's sermon at the First Presbyterian Church this evening, at seven o'clock.

Last night Rev. Gleiser spoke on "The Value of Silence," and Mrs. Mae Lynn sang, "Rest In Thee." The attendance showed a splendid growth last night, and interest is rapidly increasing.

To-night Mrs. Charles L. Storck and Mrs. O. J. Dietzler will sing a duet.

New members will be received Easter Sunday, and infants will be baptized. The session will meet after each service to receive persons who desire to unite with the church.

Sunrise Service Sunday
"Christ, The Crucified," will be the subject at the Good Friday service to be held Friday afternoon at three o'clock in the First Evangelical Church. Rev. Samuel Lindenmeyer will speak.

A special sunrise service will be held Sunday morning at six o'clock, with Miss Selma Lindenmeyer as leader.

Holy Communion will be observed at both church services Sunday.

Communion At Higelow
Communion will be celebrated Friday night at seven o'clock in the Rigelow M. E. Church, with Rev. Charles E. Chaudler, the pastor, in charge.

The Good Friday service has been planned with care and the musical program will be exceptionally beautiful. The public is invited to this service, and every member of the congregation is urged to be present.

First Baptist Church
Dr. R. A. Neighbor preached last night at the First Baptist church, "The Great Difference." He said in part, "God draws lines distinct and faint. Upon one side He places a certain class, and on another side another class. To one He says enter in, to another He says, 'Depart.'"

Two shall be in the field, one shall be taken, another left. We have read in the 11th of Exodus, "There shall not be a home in the land among the Egyptians, where there is not one dead, and there shall not be a home in Israel where there is one dead."

Against the Israelites a dog was not so much as to lift up its tongue. An explanation of why this difference. Did God have pets, did God show partiality? Certainly not. God is a just and a righteous God, there must have been a basis upon which He acted.

What was the difference? Was it a difference of morals? No. Was it a difference of education? No. Was it a difference of political power? No. Was it a difference of social ethics? No.

The difference is plainly declared in chapter 12. The Lamb to be taken, it was to be kept up, it was to be slain, the blood was to be sprinkled upon the door posts, and the carcass of the dead lamb was to be baked and eaten. This was the difference.

The fact is that there was no difference so far as God's judgments against sin were concerned, there were deaths in the homes of the Egyptians and there were deaths in the homes of the Israelites. The difference was a substitute. In the home of the Egyptian, the son was dead. In the home of the Israelite, the lamb was dead. The only safety of the sinner is in substitutionary work of Christ.

He died, we live. He suffered, we sing. He bore our sins, he took our place. By His stripes we are healed. God never passes over the sinner unless He sees the blood.

These messages are heart searching and soul stirring, and demand the attendance of both saint and sinner. Remember Dr. Neighbor will be here for only tonight and tomorrow night.

"AN-URIC!" A Wonderful Discovery

When the kidneys are weak or diseased, these natural filters do not cleanse the blood sufficiently, and the poisons are carried to all parts of the body. There follow depression, aches and pains, heartiness, drowsiness, irritability, headaches, chilliness and rheumatism. In some people there are sharp pains in the back and loins, distressing bladder disorders and sometimes obstinate dropsy. The excess of uric acid sometimes forms into gravel or kidney stones. When the uric acid affects the tissues, muscles and joints, it causes lumbago, rheumatism, gout or sciatica. This is the time to try "An-uric," the discovery of Doctor Pierce for kidney trouble and pains in back and all over body! Write Dr. Pierce, send 10 cents for a large trial package—this will prove to you that "An-uric" is many times more potent than lithia and eliminates the uric acid from the system almost as hot water melts sugar; or ask your druggist now for Dr. Pierce's An-uric (rhachic, kidney and bladder remedy).

Folks are delighted with the results they have obtained by using "An-uric," the great discovery of Dr. Pierce, who is head of the Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y. Many daily voice their praises of the merits of "An-uric." Read this letter:

"Cincinnati, Ohio.—For about four years I suffered with my kidneys being out of order. I had severe pains thru my back just across the kidneys and I would become so dizzy at times I would have to lie down until it passed off. I also had inflammation of the bladder and suffered from a burning and smarting. The secretion had a thick sediment and a very offensive odor. I suffered constantly. I tried many kidney medicines without relief until I began taking Dr. Pierce's An-uric (rhachic and backache) Tablets. They gave me the first relief in four years. Since taking them I have not experienced any more trouble. The backache left me and my kidneys are active and normal."—Wm. Johns, 254 Broad St.

EAGLES WILL ERECT NEW BUILDING

Relative to the fire which wiped out the Eagle building in Wellston Wednesday, the Sentinel of that city says: "The fire, while quite a loss to the city, means that a much finer building will take the place of the one destroyed. Already Charles Haslett, president of Aerle No. 637, Howard Collins, secretary, and other officials of the order, are busy themselves and planning for a fine new building which will start construction just as soon as the present loss is adjusted and the old walls can be removed. The new building will cover the whole lot, both frontage and to the alley in the rear. It possibly may be four stories, with all the appointments to accommodate the large and growing membership of the Aerle."

"Permits For Quarts" Opposed By Officials

WASHINGTON, March 28.—Assistant Secretary Moss today called on Collector Stuart of the Customs house at New York for a full explanation of the order issued March 19 by Thomas W. Whittle, surveyor of that port, permitting passengers on incoming steamships to land with one quart of liquor for medicinal purposes. Mr. Moss indicated that the order probably later would be materially altered.

Mr. Moss said the treasury department's information indicated the order was intended to permit passengers who were ill to bring alcoholic stimulants ashore with them when necessary but that on its face it appeared to be in direct violation of the Volstead act and of customs regulations prohibiting the inclusion of liquor as a part of a passenger's baggage.

A Debt That Society Owes Maturity

We ask of the modern professor the exercise of the highest human attributes—conscience, high thinking, a devotion to high ideals, learning, constructive talents and the genius to teach and train our sons and daughters to be the future leaders of the nation.

His value to the World is incomparable, yet he is often condemned to scarcity or even poverty, while his students go out to rewards only limited by ability and effort.

On account of meager salaries these devotees to the cause of higher education seldom have an opportunity to save enough for the "rainy day." By serving as teacher, guide and friend to thousands of our boys and girls, they are raising the seed corn of the World, but getting little or none of the harvest.

Society demands 100% efficiency from University professors, therefore, society should provide endowment funds that will permit the payment of living incomes during the long years of sacrificing service and insure reasonable retirement allowances for declining years of unemployment.

How the Ohio Wesleyan Development Program Provides for This Necessity

To provide funds for instruction and building needs that have grown out of the much enlarged student body and out of greatly changed social, economic and educational conditions, the Ohio Wesleyan Development Program involving the raising of $8,000,000 is presented to those thousands who appreciate the World's need of Christian education, and are willing to translate their sympathies into financial action.

The Pensions item of $300,000 in this Development Program, will when safely invested, insure an annual income of about $15,000 to be used as a Pension Fund for retired professors.

This is an object that should strongly appeal to every thoughtful person, because these national character moulders often spend a lifetime of service at salaries that barely permit them to obtain the necessities of life, let alone enjoy any of the luxuries.

GETTING UP NIGHTS

E. E. Mullen, M.D., Xenia, Ohio, says: "For 10 years I have been troubled with kidneys and bladder. I had to get up 5 or 6 times each night. I had taken many kinds of medicine, but Lithiated Buchu (Keller formula) is the only kind that gave me any relief. My bladder is normal and I have only used the remedy for three weeks. If you want further facts, write me." Lithiated Buchu (Keller formula) acts on the kidneys and bladder, like upon salts on the bowels. It cleanses them out, taking the bladder of many abnormal deposits. These tablets cost 25c a piece. The price makes it possible to place in the formula several drugs which are useful for relief. The formula is on the package. It is not likely you have ever taken anything similar. Try a few tablets for backache, scalding, scanty or high-colored urine and frequent desire at night. Be sure to get the Keller formula. Lithiated Buchu at all drug stores, or write Keller Laboratory, Mechanicsburg, O., or locally at Stabler Drug Co., Xenia, Ohio.

The Tailored Suit

Surely the tailored suit deserves its great favor, for of all costumes it is the most manifestly useful, uniting with its practicality a trim good looks that cannot be duplicated by any other type of outfit.

Most elaborate of all are the three-piece costume suits. The Blouse (whether attached or separate) rich in itself both in tint and fabric, lends further richness of effect.

Three-piece suits, always slender, show the wrap-around skirt and hip-length coat.

Two-piece models aim first of all at simplicity of line, though they often show embroidery on the coats.

When it is a question of the purely utilitarian or sport suits, there are jaunty camel's hair styles, tweed suits, and knitted models in many tints and tones.

A New Collection of Women's Gowns

Every new fashion note ushered in by Spring finds varied expression in this altogether lovely presentation. Equally prominent are ingeniously draped effects or the studied simplicity of straight frock, draped up a bit at both sides, that has circular panels.

DINNER GOWNS contrive to be subtly simple—a deep daffodil crepe Roma uses no elaboration save a girdle of pastel blossoms; while a gown of blackorgette, more ornate, chooses all-over beading.

LIGHT WEIGHT STREET FROCKS of Poiret tiff are individualized by colored Roman stitching, silver braid, and touches of Persian cliffion.

Colors: Printed silks, flat crepes, Cantons, and laces.

Fabrics: A veritable rainbow of new Spring tones

Women's Wraps, Capes and Coats

Whether the influence be French or American, it is shadowed forth with a diversity altogether refreshing. Always there is some ingenious new variation to a silhouette, some unexpected treatment of trimming, some clever use of a new fabric.

It may be the brilliant embroidery on a wide sleeve; a pleasantly unique draping, or the Parisian sponsored tucking of a collar. Whatever the note of differentiation, always it gives a new viewpoint to the accepted phases of the mode! Squirrel or caracul trimmings, in beige, brown and platinum grey.

Fabrics—Preciosa, marvella, gerona, twilleord, veldyne and all the most favored silks.

Jackson County Has Per Capita Debt Of $31.77

COLUMBUS, March 29.—Every resident of Jackson county has a debt of $31.77 hanging over his or her head because of bonds issued by the tax districts in this county. In 1910 this debt amounted to only $23.52. This is indicated in a compilation by State Auditor Joseph T. Tracy, who shows that the bonded indebtedness of taxing districts in this county has grown from $724,435 in 1910 to $848,777 in 1922. This indebtedness represents bonds issued by the county, cities, villages, townships and schools, but does not include state land issues.

As much as this county's population today is computed by census experts to be not more than 27,342, this means that each inhabitant's proportionate share of the total indebtedness amounts to $31.77. This figure is particularly interesting at this time because of efforts to make it easier for taxing districts to add additional bonded burdens upon the public.

The total bonded indebtedness of the various taxing units in the state of Ohio last year reached the enormous total of $679,087,137, not including state bonds. In 1910, this total was only $188,146,145, growing to $710,296,426 in 1922, and reaching the high-water mark of $679,087,137 in 1922.

The great increase in the bonded indebtedness of this county is, in a large measure, responsible for the tremendous increase in the per capita taxes paid by residents of the county. In 1910, the average amount of taxes paid by every citizen in Jackson county was only $10.20 per person. This had grown to $14.45 in 1922, while last year it amounted to $17.33 per person.

HARDIN CARRIED OWN SAMPLE CASE

The Irononian says: Wm. Hardin of Bluff Fork, this county, was arrested at Second and Railroad streets by Officers Thorne and Picklesimer on charges of possessing intoxicating liquor. The officers charge that he was offering it for sale to persons in the immediate vicinity.

For a salesman, Hardin carried a well stocked sample case. His grip was found to contain five quart jars, each filled with moonshine. In addition a pint bottle of the liquor was found on his person.

JONES FINED ON ASSAULT CHARGE

Aron Jones, clerk at Joseph's fish market, 1010 Waller street, charged with assault and battery upon Arthur Crenshaw, colored, was fined the costs following a hearing in Municipal court Wednesday. It was claimed that during a dispute last Saturday Jones struck Crenshaw but the accused claimed that all he did was to eject the complainant from the store.

Local Paper Hanger Can Now Take Credit of His Works Gives Ka-di-ock Care for His Improved Condition.

After having suffered for two and a half years with stomach and kidney trouble, doctoring all through that period, and being unable to successfully carry on his work as a paper hanger, Mr. George Ohlen, residing at 138 Lechner Avenue, Columbus, Ohio, now declares that he has completely recovered from his stomach ailment, and that his general condition has improved wonderfully, through using Ka-di-ock.

Mr. Ohlen signed a statement, he says: "About two and a half years I suffered almost constantly with my stomach. My back hurt me also. I was unable to eat, and what food I did get into my stomach caused me much misery that I almost dreaded to go to a dining table. During this time I tried a number of doctors, and also was treated by Ka-di-ock, but did not seem to show improvement. Several weeks ago I met a friend of mine, who was suffering from similar troubles to mine, and he purchased a bottle of Ka-di-ock for me. I began taking it. Improvement in my condition was noticed in seven days, and I have continued the treatment up to the present time. I can eat any kind of food my friends crave and enjoy it to the extent. The pains have entirely left my stomach, and I am no longer bothered with my kidneys. I am satisfied with the fact that this paper hanger by trade, and this Ka-di-ock, has cured me. I am able to work now, where last year I could not get on a stepladder and ladder under the most distressing conditions. This is the first time during the past three years that I have been able to take care of my work."

Ka-di-ock can be obtained in Portsmouth at Fisher & Streich's Drug Store. —Advertisement—

The Browning lad is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Browning and the Coombs boy, who had been visiting relatives on the West Side, lives at St. Paul, Ky.

Court House

Suits Involve Two Couples.
Two actions for divorce were instituted in Common Pleas court at the same time Thursday by Margaret Minor 4024, Gallia avenue New Boston, and Wilbur L. Emmert, 3953 Gallia avenue, New Boston steelworker, and Mabel Emmert of Front street, are made defendants and co-respondents.

In their petitions filed through S. A. Skelton both plaintiffs complain of alleged improper conduct between Minor and Mrs. Emmert. Mrs. Minor further charges cruelty and neglect, declaring that Minor has assaulted and choked her, abused and culled her with harm, and that he has threatened her with harm unless she agrees to a legal separation and permit him to do as he pleases, besides, she claims, he has failed to support her properly and that she has been compelled to work to maintain herself and child. She secured a temporary injunction preventing the defendant from visiting her home at the Gallia street address. They were married in 1918. Emmert also alleges cruelty and neglect, asserting that the wife on one occasion struck him across the head with a blunt instrument and at another time pointed a pistol and threatened his life. In addition he avers she neglected him, their three children and their home for the association of Minor and in addition to a divorce asks for the custody of the children, alleging that she is unfit to be trusted with their care by reason of her improper conduct.

Mrs. Boggs Seeks Divorce
Nannie Boggs, 3041 Walnut street, charges cruelty in her suit for divorce and alimony and restoration to her former name of Stevens, instituted in Common Pleas court Thursday against John Boggs, railroad switchman, 2901 Gallia street, who she married in February, 1919.

In her petition filed through Attorney Harry Ball the wife complains that Boggs violently cursed her, accused her falsely of neglect, finds fault with all she does, mistreats her children by a former marriage, and by alleged excessive drinking makes life miserable, she says. She further claims that his abuse of her culminated in their separation on February 22 last, when, she declares, he assaulted and struck her repeatedly, bruising her head until she bled profusely and she also alleges unfaithfulness and names one Bettie Snyder.

Kelley Taken To Pen
Edward Kelley, Warren steelworker, who was sentenced to a term of from one to three years in the penitentiary under his plea of guilty to abandoning his three legitimate children, was taken to the big prison at Columbus Thursday by Deputy Sheriff Eliza Carter to start on his sentence.

Seeks Divorce and Former Name
Alleging neglect and cruelty and declaring that she was compelled to give him her money to buy cigarettes and pay grocery bills and other living expenses, Iva Starlin seeks divorce and alimony with restoration to her maiden name of Blankenship in her suit instituted in Common Pleas court Thursday against Clarence Starlin, 425 Third street, whom she married in September 1920.

In her petition filed through Atto-ney H. F. Kimble the wife says that Starlin frequently cursed and choked her, threatened to destroy her clothes and declares that she was forced to and did leave him on March 17 last by reason of his neglect and cruel treatment.

Marriage Licenses

State Rests Case

MARTON, H.L., March 29.—(By the United Press)—The state rested its case in the second Herrin massacre trial today after placing 32 witnesses on the stand. Taking of testimony for the defense for the six defendants was started immediately.

Troop 11 Bows To Sciotoville

Before a large crowd in the Sciotoville high gym, the fast Sciotoville eighth grade quintet defeated Troop 11 by a score of 12-11. The game was played fast and hard from start to finish. Although Troop 11 ran in Itehardt and Russ of the Herrin school five, they would not stop the fast eighth grade five from passing and shooting from difficult positions. McCoy was the star of the game, caging three baskets and holding his man at the same time. The game was fast, but clean, only three personal fouls being called. McCoy is a wonder and is working his way toward the S. H. S. team.

The guards kept on the heels of the forwards, while the eighth grade forwards did the shooting.

Waddell refereed one of the best games of his career. The eighth grade five has one of the best teams of its size in Scioto county, and probably would have carried away the cup in the elementary school league, had not the league broken up on account of sickness.

The Sciotoville eighth grade five would like to get a chance at Highland or Bond street school quintets. The lineups and summary:

Eighth Grade—12	Troop 11—11
Wohler	RF
Batterson	LF
Wheeler	RG
Brown 2, Cooke 2, Sloan 1, Halsland 2.
Poul Goals—Cooke 1.
Subs—Stittman for Wheeler.
Referee—Waddell.

Recipe To Clear A Pimply Skin

Pimples Are Impurities Seeking an Outlet Through Skin Pores

Pimples, sores and boils usually result from toxins, poisons and impurities which are generated in the bowels and then absorbed into the blood through the very ducts which would absorb only nourishment to sustain the body.

It is the function of the kidneys to filter impurities from the blood and cast them out in the form of urine, but in many instances the bowels create more toxins and impurities than the kidneys can eliminate; then the blood uses the skin pores as the next best means of getting rid of these impurities, which often break out all over the skin in the form of pimples.

The surest way to clear the skin of these eruptions, says a noted authority is to get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water each morning before breakfast for one week. This will help prevent the formation of toxins in the bowels. It also stimulates the kidneys, thus coaxing them to filter the blood of impurities and clearing the skin of pimples.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent drink, which usually helps make pimples disappear.—Advertisement.

Those who are themselves unbaptized may not under any circumstances act as sponsors for obvious reasons.

Good Friday Services At All Saints'

No less a fixed event is Good Friday, commemorating the day of the crucifixion and observed on the Friday immediately preceding the Easter festival. Observed from the beginning by the ancient, historic churches of the world it has in late years commended itself to protestant denominations and Christians of every name now honor Good Friday. As the day on which Christ offered up His life for the redemption of the world it is the most sacred and solemn of the Christian year. It is not too much to say that without the observance of Good Friday Easter is meaningless. In all churches that have retained primitive beliefs and practices the altars are stripped of their decorations, the altar and processional crosses are draped in black and the hangings are of the same sombre hue. The services are of great solemnity and the faithful devote as much time as possible to prayer and meditation. "There is no church which more faithfully observes this great day than All Saints' church in this city. The "Three Hours" addresses on the "Seven Last Words from the Cross" will be given by the Rector as in previous years. This service begins at 12:00 noon and closes at 3:00 p. m. Worshipers may enter and leave the church during the singing of one of the hymns of the Passion. This year the solemnities of the day will be fittingly crowned by the singing of "The Seven Last Words from the Cross" by Theodore Dubois by a specially assembled choir of the best musical artists in the city. This service will commence at 7:30. All are welcome to these services. Silver collection at the evening service to pay expenses.

Great Musical Event At All Saints' Friday

When the specially recruited choir composed of the leading soloists of the city sing Dubois' "Seven Last Words of Christ" at All Saints' Church tomorrow night, they will be greeted by an audience representative of the lovers of fine music in Portsmouth. This is by far the most ambitious program yet attempted in the city and the choir, judging from results of the rehearsals, of which there have been many, will do full justice to the occasion. You are advised to be in your seat before 7:30 and as the best seats will be taken early. There will be a silver collection to defray the expenses attendant upon the production of this masterpiece. To reach the church, leave the street car at Fourth and Chillicothe street and walk two squares west to the corner of Fourth and Court streets. All are cordially invited to come.

of hardware, farm implements and machinery handled by Mr. Koch. A feature of the demonstration was a model water system for farms and rural homes, and power machinery for the farm home and field. The big store was filled with farmers and their wives all day long.

HOW MY HUSBAND REDUCED HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE

By Mrs. Hadley Rinhart

"My husband suffered from high blood pressure for three years he had terrible dizzy spells and spent many sleepless nights. He would often be taken in the middle of the night with one of these spells and I would have to get temporary aid immediately. He was advised to take NORMA. After taking one bottle, his dizziness had completely left him and he gets perfect rest, and I can truthfully say that he feels one hundred per cent better than before taking NORMA. Mr. Rinhart was advised to stop work and was confined to his home and now can go about his work. It is a wonderful remedy for High Blood Pressure and I am glad to have this opportunity of recommending it to all who suffer as my husband did."

High blood pressure is indicated by dizziness, nervousness, sleeplessness and "that moody, feeling of dread" sometimes by hot flashes and lack of appetite.

NORMA (purely vegetable) should reduce high blood pressure and make you feel well in a short time. Fisher & Strech is selling it every day as are hundreds of good druggists everywhere. Ask for NORMA. — Advertisement.

Clear Senators

The bill now is before the senate judiciary committee to which it was sent on request of Majority Floor Leader Kryder after the rumors of corruption had become public.

Specific vindication for the officers of the association also was made in the report.

"There is no testimony whatever implicating either the Ohio Hotel Association or Mr. W. G. Nickels, of New Philadelphia, its president; Mr. Russell M. Kuepper, its general counsel or Mr. Robert O'Brien, its executive director of any wrong doing," the report said. "On the contrary, the record discloses that Mr. Nickels, Mr. Kuepper and Mr. O'Brien have conducted themselves both before this investigation and during the time of this investigation as honest, upright and truthful citizens and worthy of every confidence."

The committee's investigation, which started after Senator Kryder transmitted a statement of information received from O'Brien touched all sources from "which we could secure the slightest evidence of fact, touching any attempt to bribe or consummate bribery as relating to any member of the senate," according to the report. It covered, it declared, investigation into the alleged "offering of any sum or sums of money by any individual, organization or interest for the purpose of improperly or corruptly influencing legislation at this session of the legislature, extent and basis of rumors, insinuation of misconduct and alleged illegal acts of members of the senate and there is no testimony whatever which would warrant a court of justice implicating any member of the senate or any bill introduced in either house. On the contrary, each and every member of the senate, insofar as the record discloses, as we have been able to ascertain, has conducted himself strictly as comports with the dignity, duties and demands of the responsible office which he holds."

Three Candidates

Three candidates, Mrs. Della Cannaday, Mrs. Phyllis Grimes and Mrs. Gertrude Smith, received the adoption degree at the weekly session of O Na Wa Council, Degree of Pouchontas last night. Four applications were also received.

The Harold Flowers arrested last Sunday night on a disorderly conduct charge, was not Harold Flowers, high school student, of 1518 Fourth street.

Shivering Canadians Fear They Will Be Denied Summer

TORONTO, March 29.—(By the Associated Press)—Shivering Canadians who follow the forecasts of local weather prophets, were all worked up today over predictions that this year would pass without any summer.

With the temperature at or below zero throughout this section, the local forecasters harked back to 1816 for a parallel for the summerless year they are predicting. In 1816, historical records say, there was frost in every month of the year. Birds were killed, corn and other crops failed to ripen and the northern United States, they say, was treated to a June snow storm. Sir Frederick Stupart, director of the meteorological service, asked about the predictions, refused to guarantee 1923 summer, though he thought there would be one.

"This is the most uncertain weather-or in the world, and no man can tell what it is going to do," he said. "It is not reasonable to imagine there will be summer, but at the same time any one who says that there will be summer is only guessing from what happened last year and the year before."

None in Sight Now. Jack—Tom, I'm in a terrible fix. I'm engaged to three girls. Tom—Well, that's not exactly a crime. Jack—No, that's the worst of it. If it were I could go to prison and have some peace.—Boston Evening Transcript.

BODY OF UNIDENTIFIED MAN FOUND NEAR MANCHESTER; BULLET IN HEAD

MANCHESTER, Mar. 29.—The body of a well dressed man apparently about 40 years old was found along the roadside about ten miles west of this place Thursday morning.

There is a bullet hole in the man's head; a revolver was found lying near his side. The coroner who was called said the man apparently had been dead three or four days. It is believed he was here last Friday and stated that he was on his way to Aberdeen, near where his body was found. The man wore a dark suit, but nothing was found in the pockets that would lead to an identification. A dime was found in one of his pockets.

Compromise Taxation Program Passed By Ohio Senate; Ready For Conference

COLUMBUS, O., March 29.—(By the Associated Press)—The 85th general assembly today had given up hope of completing the session's business this week and had set Friday, April 6 as the date for a three weeks' recess to be terminated by a brief session beginning April 27.

While the senate held tenaciously to the belief that it could be ready to recess Saturday night and adopted a resolution to that effect the house refused to concur and the upper chamber agreed to the proposal that the session close a week later.

Both houses now plan to dispose of as much of the remaining work as possible within the next week and a half, and go home and return later to clean up the legislative odds and ends.

A large number of bills will reach the governor during the recess and it was regarded as unlikely that all of them would be signed.

The senate took a long step towards completion of its program for passage of important legislation yesterday when it approved the so-called compromise taxation program previously ratified by the house. With the Taft, Albaugh and Robinson bills as its component parts and contemplating establishment of new limitations, codification of the tax laws, establishment of the county unit of assessment instead of townships and wards and the imposition of heavy penalties for failure to return or false return of property for taxation, the program passed the senate with little opposition and with only minor amendments.

The Taft and Robinson bills now go to the house for concurrence in amendments, but the Albaugh bill is ready for the governor's consideration. Whether the governor would sign the measures remained a moot question, but leaders made no attempt to conceal their confidence that the entire program probably could be passed over a veto should the governor fail to approve it.

The Taft bill as passed by the senate would establish 17 mills as the maximum limitation for levies in municipalities and 14 mills for rural districts and provide that counties might at their pleasure elect their county budget commissions or have them composed of the auditor, prosecutor and treasurer. The Albaugh bill sets up a county board of assessment composed of county elective officials and grants the board power to appoint assessors and other officials.

Under the Robinson bill failure to return property for taxation or a false return intentionally made, would be penalized by forfeiture of 10 per cent of the value of the property for the first year and two per cent each for the four succeeding years.

Both houses today were to continue their intensive efforts to finish the legislative program. The senate expected to hear the report of the special committee which investigated alleged irregularities in connection with the hotel liability bill of Senator Marshall, of Cleveland. The house was regarded as likely to be called upon to vote upon the resolution of Minority Leader Atkinson, in which he charged that the majority members had not heeded any of the recommendations of the governor and had failed to give "consideration" to nine bills introduced by Democrats, and reflecting the governor's beliefs.

The Anti-Saloon League yesterday saw the house ratify another of its proposals when it passed the bill of Representative Pinebrook, Republican, of Stark county. Authorization would be given under the bill for courts to send women liquor law violators to the Marysville Reformatory to work out their fines and permit county commissioners to have indigent prisoners work out their fines on roads or other public work. Present laws forbid the holding of women in work houses longer than thirty days.

Legislative investigation of alleged combinations of road material interests in the state was refused by the senate yesterday when it defeated the resolution of Senator Thomas Gifford, Republican, Lucas county, proposing that in view of Governor Donahue's declarations that the road material interests held a "strangle hold" on the state, a joint committee be appointed to look into the situation. Majority Leader Kyrle and others who opposed the resolution said that in the attorney general's department the governor had ample machinery to make such an investigation himself and that it was his duty rather than that of the legislature to take such steps.

Eight Million Dollars For Ohio River Improvement

WASHINGTON, March 29.—(By the Associated Press)—Secretary Weeks said today it was his opinion that not more than $8,000,000 of the $46,000,000 appropriated by congress for river and harbor improvements throughout the country for the fiscal year, 1924, could be expended economically during the year on the Ohio river. The exact amount of the allotment is yet to be determined.

The war secretary also declared that improvements contemplated on other rivers and harbors projects could be adequately cared for by the $48,000,000 which would be left in the event it was decided to expend $8,000,000 on the Ohio.

Allotments for most of the improvements have been practically determined by Major General Beach, chief of army engineers and will be submitted to Secretary Weeks for his approval at an early date. The latter said today he would not express any formal opinion however until he had conferred with President Harding, who has been reported displeased by the action of congress in authorizing an appropriation greater than the amount approved by the director of the budget. It is regarded as possible that the president may restrict expenditures to the amount requested and return the balance to the treasury unexpended.

SPEEDY LAUNCH PASSES HERE; CLIPS OFF 37 MILES PER HOUR ON WAY SOUTH

The Bellami, a launch built in Pittsburg for the United States government, dashed past Portsmouth Thursday at an approximate speed of thirty-seven miles an hour, after making a record run from the Smoky City.

The boat, which is the latest word in launch construction, will be used by the government on the Mississippi river for inspection work and is the fastest of its kind afloat on inland waters. The craft cost $38,000 and is equipped with all modern conveniences. It is seventy feet long, has a six teen-foot beam and draws about four feet of water. The paneling on the boat is solid oak and it is lighted with electricity, has hot and cold water, showers and a refrigerating plant.

Battle Seas; Reach Victim

CLEVELAND, O., March 29.—(By the Associated Press)—Six coast guards and a physician battled through terrific seas to the water works crib, five miles out in Lake Erie last night, and removed Harry Holsworth, crib tender, ill with pneumonia, only to be themselves rescued by a tug when a bulky motor placed their little power boat at the mercy of the waves. The tug Frank W. rescued the crippled motor boat two miles out just as it was dangerously near crashing against the breakwater.

Holsworth is suffering from pneumonia, Dr. Harry L. Bard said this morning. His chances of recovery are good, the doctor said.

He was rescued after a gale had cut him off from medical attention for nearly 24 hours after his illness had reached a critical stage.

An attempt to get aid to Holsworth yesterday failed when the high seas prevented the coast guard launch landing against the circular steel crib.

Captain Crapo, of the United States Coast Guards, Dr. Bard and several guards made a second and successful effort to rescue Holsworth early last evening. Nine times their 40 foot power boat circled the crib before, on a signal from Captain Crapo, two companions of Holsworth at the crib swung the sick man, suspended by a rope under his arms, far out over the waters where he fell into a net stretched in the power boat. Dr. Bard promptly administered stimulants.

Greatest Crowd In History Jam Cemetery To View Sarah Bernhardt's Interment

PARIS, March 29.—(By the Associated Press)—The body of Sarah Bernhardt was laid to rest in her tomb in the cemetery of Pere La Chaise this afternoon at four o'clock after a simple funeral service in the church of St. Francois de Sales, and a solemn procession through streets thronged with crowds of mourners.

The cemetery was filled with what old residents of Paris termed the greatest crowd in its history and as the casket of the tragedienne was lowered into the simple tomb, a great sigh swept over the throng, punctuated by the sobs of those more deeply affected.

The ceremony at the church was simple, for Bernhardt had expressed a wish that there be no eulogies. The vault that received her body was also plain, bearing one word, "Bernhardt". The streets leading to the church and the Rue Ampere where the church St. Francois de Sales is located, was thronged with crowds.

The Rue Ampere itself was barred except to card holders. The street was a veritable flower garden all the morning as offerings from the Bernhardt theatre, the opera, the Opera Comique, the Comedie Francaise, and from individuals from every section of the world of art were placed near the grave. The hier was placed at the head of the nave, elevated about ten feet and surrounded with several score of candles, with a cross of lilies four feet high at the foot. Places near the bier were reserved for the artists of the Bernhardt Theatre.

PARIS, March 29.—(By the Associated Press)—Paris paused today to pay a final measure of respect to the great Sarah Bernhardt. Crowds that gathered at the church of St. Francois de Sales for the service and at the cemetery Pere la Chaise, mourned sincerely for her whom they loved so well, and they brought in profusion the tribute of flowers she requested.

Bernhardt's body rested in the rosewood casket which she ordered made thirty years ago. On the breast of her white satin dress was pinned the cross of the Legion of Honor, while about her neck was the gold locket containing the likeness of her son Maurice.

In the rush to gain a glimpse of the hier many were crushed and fell fainting while the long lines of gendarmes swayed to and fro under the pressure of the crowd. Not since the victory parade of July 14, 1910, had a gathering of this immensity been seen in Paris.

The throng which overflowed the cemetery was composed for the most part of humble people who had remained there since early morning to gain a glimpse of the entombment.

There were many however, who made the pilgrimage from the church to the grave. It was remarked that the majority of these were old women and so fatigued were they by the three hours journey, that not a few fainted from sheer exhaustion.

Mrs. Vidovich told police the attempted murder and suicide came as a result of a quarrel with Nachach, who she said, paid her unwelcome attention while boarding in her home and was ordered to leave.

CLEVELAND, O., March 29.—(By the Associated Press)—Mrs. Nicholas Vidovich, 30, was stabbed in the left breast and shot through the hand as she stepped from the doorway of her home on her way to work this morning by Joseph Nachach, a former boarder in the Vidovich home, who then turned the gun upon himself, inflicting a fatal wound in the head.

The couple were rushed to a hospital, Nachach dying on the operating table, while the physicians said Mrs. Vidovich's condition is serious, because of loss of blood. Her husband submitted to a blood transfusion operation.

Use Natural Gas Only Where It Does Useful Work

Soot on heating surfaces will prevent transfer of heat.

Heating surfaces should be kept clean and if soot is deposited, the cause should be found and corrected. Scale or sediment inside of heating surfaces will also prevent transfer of heat.

Heaters should be drained frequently.

Remember that burners should be clean to give best results and should also be adjusted to give short blue flames at all times. Yellow flames deposit soot. If the tips of the flames are too low, the transfer of heat is not efficient.

If the utensil is placed low on the flames so that it touches the pale blue parts, poisonous gases are produced. The best results are obtained when the outer parts of the flame touch the utensil and spread out slightly.

To Preach On "The Crucifixion" Tonight

Services in the chapel of the Second Presbyterian Church tonight are expected to be largely attended, as much interest has been manifested every night this week. Wednesday night's services were attended by over three hundred, and the pastor, Rev. Hugh I. Evans, is very well pleased over the large attendance and appreciative interest shown. Tonight Rev. Evans will preach on "The Crucifixion." Professor Elmer Ende has arranged for special music, and it is hoped a large number of the congregation will avail itself of the opportunity to participate in the sacred Easter week services.

Rev. Mayer At Franklin Avenue Tonight

The revival services at Franklin Ave. church are increasing in interest and attendance. Last night the Junior choir led the singing, which added much to the inspiration of the meeting.

The after service, in which the pastor met and counseled with the recent converts, was very encouraging and gave indication of good work that was begun in the "Crucifixion Meetings."

Tonight at 7:15 the sermon will be preached by the District Superintendent, Rev. John Mayer, D. D., of Cleveland, Ohio, who always brings an interesting and helpful message.

There will also be services on Friday night. None on Saturday. On Easter morning there will be a Sunrise prayer and praise service at 6:00 o'clock in the Sunday school room of the church.

TERMINAL CHURCH NEWS

A good crowd was present last night for the first service of the Terminal revival meeting. The pastor preached from the text: "And the Lord said unto Moses, wherefore criest thou unto me? speak unto the children of Israel that they go forward." Following the sermon the Christian people gathered about the altar for prayer and consecration.

The chorus choir which has been organized performed in fine style. Besides leading the congregational singing, they rendered a special number. The other special number was solo by Miss Hannah Bender.

ASHLAND MINUTE MEN PLAY SCOUT CHAMPS HERE TONIGHT

Tonight in the Portsmouth high school gym the Boy Scout champions of Portsmouth will play the Ashland Minute Men, church league champions of the Kentucky city. The Scout quintet will be composed mostly of Troop 1 Scouts who attend First Presbyterian church.

The big game will begin at eight o'clock sharp. Tickets have been on sale for a week and indications are that a big crowd will be present. The proceeds go into the Boy Scout Camp Fund.

The local quintet will line up with Don Phillips of the high school squad at center and Saddle and Brock at forward with Howard Flowers and Muller at guard. This leaves Hunter ready to drop in at forward and Alford at guard with Kaylor ready to fill in any place.

Oberlin Players To Put On Three Plays; Here Next Tuesday; Seat Sale Opens Monday

Final arrangements have been made by the Ladies' Auxiliary, of the American Legion, for the presentation of the Oberlin Dramatic Society at the local high school auditorium on Tuesday evening, April 3. The association, one of the foremost of the larger societies, will give three modern one-act plays that they have given in the cities of the East, where they met with much approval. The tickets may be obtained from any of the members of the auxiliary at the Smoke House or at the studio of Miss Doris Moore over the Chamber of Commerce office on Gallia street. The price is $1 and 75 cents, and judging from the advance sale, it is hoped that the auditorium will be filled. Seats may be reserved on Monday, April 2, at 9 a. m. to 8:30 p. m.

The Oberlin College students will arrive on the noon train Tuesday and will be entertained in the homes of the Auxiliary members. As several machines will be needed for about one hour that noon, the members will appreciate the use of a car from anyone who will be willing to offer their services by calling Mrs. George Matthews, Chairman, 945-X.

Firpo Wins

NEW YORK, March 29.—Luis Angel Firpo, South American heavyweight and conqueror of Bill Brennan, won the decision over Jim Hilliard, of Buffalo, in a four round exhibition bout for the benefit of the American Committee for devastated France last night.

Firpo showed much speed and decided improvement in boxing. The Argentinean did not uncover the full power of his punches.

Jack Britton, former welterweight champion, and Elmo Flores, Filipino boxer, went through four rounds of milling to a draw.

Frankie Genaro, American flyweight champion, won handily from Bobby Doyle of New York on their four round exhibition, while Johnny Dundee, junior lightweight champion, captured the decision from Tony Vaccarello of New York, in four frames.

"Donahue The Greatest Ever Since Matty"

ORLANDO, FLA., March 29.—"The greatest pitcher that has broken into the National League since the days of Matthewson."

"The nearest replica to 'Big Six' I ever expect to see. He reminds me of Matty every time I see him wind up. There is ease and grace to every motion."

"The remarkable thing about that fellow is that he stepped right from the college diamond to the big league, a finished pitcher."

There you have the opinion of Joe Tinker, relative to Pete Donahue, star pitcher of the Cincinnati Reds. It was an unsolicited testimonial as Donahue was busy pitching in batting practice.

Pete Donahue is the youngster who joined the Reds several years ago, direct from Christian Brothers College in Texas and won fame overnight. After his first game he was voted a star recruit, a real big leaguer, and he has since lived up to that reputation.

Donahue is expected to carry much of the Cincinnati pitching burden this year. He is a trifle heavier than last year, which is good news to Manager Moran, who would like to add even 15 pounds more to his star pitcher's weight, well realizing that Donahue has a busy season ahead of him.

"A great pitcher and a fine boy," is Manager Moran's sloop of Pete Donahue.
